01 INTRODUCTION

In 2022, Porsche Michelin Sprint Challenge Australia celebrates its 14th season in Australia. The series became a reality in 2008 when a group of enthusiasts took their Porsche race cars to Mallala in South Australia to kick start a four-round mini-series. Now managed by Porsche Cars Australia, the series has developed into one of Australia's best and most professionally run racing series offering Porsche enthusiasts progressing from state level championships an opportunity to compete in the previous generation 911 GT3 Cup cars in a competitive and welcoming environment.

For young drivers, the series is a launch pad in their pursuit of a professional motor racing career. Several drivers have used Sprint Challenge to gain experience in a high-performance sports car before their journey up the Porsche Motorsport Pyramid. The ultimate example of the success of this pathway is Matt Campbell. After winning the Class B title in 2014, Campbell raced two Carrera Cup seasons, winning the Porsche Carrera Cup Australia Pro championship in 2016 and claiming success at the Porsche Motorsport Junior Programme Shootout, which promoted the Queenslander to the Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup as a Porsche Junior.

Third in the Supercup saw Campbell promoted to a Porsche Young Professional role and an extensive Porsche factory race programme in 2018. In 2019, Campbell was part of the Bathurst 12 Hour Earl Bamber Motorsport winning team and for 2020 was named as full Porsche factory driver, which he remains until today.

Jaxon Evans would also finish runner-up in the 2016 Sprint Challenge season before going on to win the 2018 Porsche Carrera Cup Championship. Following in the footsteps of Campbell, Evans was victorious in the Junior Programme Shootout before launching into an international racing career with Porsche as an official Porsche Junior driver in the 2019. Evans has gone onto compete in the Le Mans 24 Hr and is a two-time Carrera Cup champion, finishing runner-up in the 2021 Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup Championship.

Racing at Motorsport Australia Championships events in 2022, the series retains Michelin as its Title Partner and official Tyre Supplier. For Pro and Pro-Am competitors alike, Porsche Michelin Sprint Challenge Australia will continue as one of Australia's best national racing series in 2022.

Races will be broadcast LIVE on Stan Sport and SBS with livestream coverage across Motorsport Australia

Be sure to follow the @PorscheMotorsportAU social channels on Facebook, Youtube and Instagram (and @PorscheMspAU on Twitter) for all the latest news, videos and racing action from the 2022 season.

DRIVER CLASSIFICATION

DRIVER CLASSIFICATION

DRIVERS IN SPRINT CHALLENGE AUSTRALIA FALL WITHIN THREE CLASSES – PRO AND PRO-AM AND CLASS B. THERE ARE GUIDELINES IN PLACE TO HELP DETERMINE THE CLASSIFICATIONS OF A DRIVER, WITH THE ULTIMATE DECISION FALLING WITH PORSCHE CARS AUSTRALIA.

PRO

Over the seasons, Sprint Challenge is being used as a launch pad for young drivers' motor racing careers. These drivers, who are racing a Porsche 911 GT3 Cup (Type 991 Gen II) car, have traditionally formed the Pro class in Sprint Challenge. While both the 2020 and 2021 Sprint Challenge Championships were not concluded due to Covid travel restrictions. The 2019 Pro Champion was Harri Jones. Other noteworthy Pro drivers have included Richard Muscat, Jaxon Evans, Dylan O'Keeffe and Matt Campbell, who won the final round of the 2014 season in the Pro division having already secured the Class B crown.

PRO-AM

Porsche Michelin Sprint Challenge Australia is just as much about the Pro-Am racer as it is of the drivers competing for outright victory. The Pro-Am class is exclusively for semi-professional drivers racing the Porsche 911 GT3 Cup (Type 991 Gen II) car. These drivers do not seek to make a profession from motor racing nor do they seek to earn an income from racing duties. Instead, the Pro-Am racer consists of business leaders with a willingness to race sports cars. Or more specifically, the Porsche 911 GT3 Cup car on national stage.

CLASS B

The Porsche Michelin Sprint Challenge Australia series is a multi-class series, allowing drivers to compete in the older generation Porsche 911 GT3 Cup (Type 991 Gen I) cars on an invitational basis. Regardless of whether a driver is classified as a Pro or Pro-Am, all racers competing in the 991 Gen I GT3 Cup car will form part of the Class B invitational division.
